Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-26 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The present invention is directed to a transport vehicle service guiding system for guiding a user as to when to get on or off of a transport vehicle. Each independent claim identifies the uniquely distinct features:

Regarding claims 1, 9, 17 and 19: "user terminal transmits information about a destination to said guidance information providing center through said network and makes a request for corresponding said guidance information; wherein said guidance information providing center, in response to a request from said user terminal, provides said guidance information to said user terminal through said network; and wherein said vehicle-installed communicating unit, when having received a get-off guidance request created based on said guidance information from said user terminal, transmits get-off guidance information to said user terminal".

Regarding claims 8, 16, 18 and 26: "user terminal transmits information about a destination through said network to said guidance information providing center and makes a request for corresponding said guidance information and, based on provided guidance information, determines timing for guiding said user in getting out of said transport vehicle and, when said transport vehicle approaches said destination, gives notification to prompt said user to prepare for getting out of said transport vehicle”.

The closest prior art, Olandesi (US 5,739,774) and Laird (US 6,618,668) disclose conventional transport vehicle guiding systems, either singularly or in combination, fail to anticipate the above limitations obvious.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”
